

1871-002 Chancery Cases: John H. Allen for &c vs. Alfred Hall
Lee Co.

Habern

CA-Debt

T-Property

107
To the Honorable Henry J. Morgan Judge of the County Court of Lee County Virginia;

The Bill of Complaint of John H. Allard who sues for the benefit of S. B. F. Habern humbly Complaining respectfully represents that on the 25th day of January 1868 in the County of Lee he obtained a judgment before a justice of the peace in and for said County against one Alfred Hall for the sum of $18.00 with interest from the 21st day of June 1859 till paid and 30 cts costs and upon this judgment an execution was immediately ^{issued} but was not enforced as appears by the same judgment and execution a copy of which is herewith filed ^{marked (A)} and made a part of this bill and hence your orator alleges that the said judgment interest and costs is still wholly and entirely unpaid Your Orator further alleges that on the 28th day of September 1869 the said judgment and execution was returned to the County Court Clerks office of Lee County and docketted and recorded in said office and on the 31st day of May 1871 an execution being of that date was issued by the Clerk according to law against the goods and chattels of the said Alfred Hall which execution went into the hands of William A. M. Baker Deputy Sheriff for Charles L. Hamblen Sheriff of Lee County and who returned the same to the County Court Clerks office of Lee County with the following return endorsed thereon to wit "Not executed No property found subject to Levy W. A. M. Baker G. S. for C. L. Hamblen S. L. C. June 1871"

A Copy of which execution with the endorsement thereon is herewith filed marked (B) and is made a part of this Bill, by which it will appear that the said judgment cannot be made out of the said Alfred Hall's personal estate and hence your Orator alleges that the said Hall has no more personal estate that is now held by exemption laws but your Orator alleges that the said Alfred Hall is the owner of a tract or parcel of land lying and being in Lee County containing about ^{acres} on which your Orator's judgment is a valid and subsisting lien not impaired by the homestead exemption the said judgment having been obtained on the 25th day of January 1868. Your Orator will further state that ~~the~~ he has sold and transferred the said judgment & execution to the said S. B. F. Habern and therefore this suit is brought for his benefit.

Now the object of this Bill is to subject the real estate owned by Alfred Hall to the payment of your Orator's judgment interest and costs and the costs of this suit and being without an adequate remedy at law and best receivable in a Court of equity his prayer therefore is that the said Alfred Hall be made the party defendant to this Bill and that he be summoned and required to answer the same upon his oath and that upon a hearing of this cause a decree be entered against the said Alfred Hall real estate for the amount of your Orator's judgment interest & costs and the costs of this suit and such other further and general relief be extended to your Orator as may be consistent with equity and justice and best suited to his case. May the Court's writ &c. issue directed &c.

David Miller for Compell.

For value received I hereby assign to S. B. F. Habern my judgment and execution against Alfred Hall on which this Bill is filed. This the 8th day of July 1871.
